

TOK exhibition examiner's comments

| | |
|-----------------|----|
| Mark awarded | 5 |
| Marks available | 10 |

Example H

The candidate has added a very vague introduction and lengthy conclusion that are not required and that significantly limit the word count left available for the substance of the commentaries themselves. There is some simplistic linking of personal experience to knowledge, but several of the points made are simply assertions that are not justified or supported with evidence.